Your Virtue, Dear Sheikh Pashazade,
My esteemed colleague,

I would like to express my deep appreciation for your letter dated on March 28, 2021. Your kind words, as I was about to observe Passover, were warmly welcomed.

It is my turn now to extend my Ramadan greetings to you.
May this month be filled with joy, peace and prosperity.

I am proud to count you as a dear friend and a partner in strengthening Muslim-Jewish relations and global interfaith cooperation.

May G-d continue to bless our work to achieve lasting peace and cooperation among peoples and nations.

I am looking forward to seeing you soon in Baku.
Ramadan Mubarak!

Warmly,

Rabbi Marc Schneier
