Your Excellency,

I have read your kind holiday wishes with true pleasure. We do welcome your heartfelt blessing.

The essential message of our Chanukkah Feast, hope, perseverance, and faith is meant to the mankind, to all humans.

Hereby, I reconfirm your words on the importance of interreligious cooperation and dialogue, both are vital and most topical these days.

May I take this very opportunity to wish you peace, joy and serenity as this year is about to come to its end.

Yours sincerely,

András Heisler
